Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B 23 June 2024

Reflection

Mass

Wed

Sun

Jesus and His disciples set sail on a boat, and a great storm arises, causing the disciples to fear for their lives. Jesus, asleep in the boat, is awakened by their cries and rebukes the wind and sea, commanding them to be still. The disciples are amazed as the storm immediately subsides, witnessing Jesus' authority over nature and learning to trust in Him even amidst the fiercest storms of life.

Quiet now! Be calm! And the wind dropped, and all was calm gain. Bear

This passage from the Gospel of Matthew is a common image representing the early Church. Like the apostles on the boat facing strong waves, the early Christians were facing rough seas all around them. At the time this gospel was written, around the year 70AD, the early Church was facing persecution in Jerusalem and in Rome. Some thought that Jesus had gone to sleep, totally oblivious of all that the disciples were going through.

Like the Church has done throughout the ages, the apostles run to the 'absent' Jesus crying out: Do you not care? We are going to drown and you are enjoying your sleep! Jesus' reply is to instantly calm the wind and the waves, and to chastise the disciples: How is it that you still have no faith! How is it that you still do not believe that I am the Son of God and have authority over the wind and the sea. As God tells Jonah in the first reading, after all, who created the sea and set its limits?

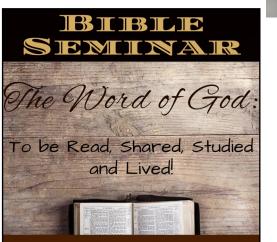

We too are often faced with these same issues. We often look around us and wonder whether Jesus has abandoned his Church. Has he really gone to sleep again? Do we really believe that Jesus has the power to calm the storms of our life if only we were to trust in him?
